Notice of Annual SRI Research Fellowship

About SRI

The Swan Research Institute was formed in 2001 as an independent, incorporated Association to promote quality research in areas related to the causes, prevention or cure of diseases in humans. SRI has Deductible Gift Recipient status from the Australian Tax Office on this basis for this category. Swami Niranjanananda Saraswati is its president

SRI has decided to initially focus on exploring and developing better understanding of the many practices within the science of yoga and their implications for physical and mental health, healthy lifestyle, mental and spiritual development, particularly in prevention of many modern diseases, but also in possible treatments in promising areas such as asthma, diabetes, cancer, depression and other mental illnesses, anxiety, drug addiction, hypertension, high or low blood pressure and cardiac disease, to name a few.

SRI Research Fellowship

We wish to announce the annual SRI Research Fellowship, to be awarded each year to encourage research into the field of Yoga, to develop understanding of its practices and its implications for physical and mental health, healthy lifestyle, mental and spiritual development.

Terms and conditions

You must be an Australian citizen or be a permanent Australian resident to apply.

The Fellowship will be applied towards research in an area of yoga that would satisfy SRI's aim of exploring and better understanding practices in the science of yoga and their implications for physical and mental health; healthy lifestyle and disease prevention or treatment.

The Fellowship is awarded annually

The dollar amount awarded to the successful applicant/s each year is currently $1080, usually payable in two installments of $540, to help cover any transport and other costs of the SRI Research Fellowship program. Furthermore, the Fellowship covers the full value of all accommodation and meals etc. (to an approximate value of $3,500) at the Satyananda Yoga Academy (SYA) at Mangrove Mountain in NSW

The Fellowship may be held concurrently with any other award or scholarship.
Successful and unsuccessful applicants may reapply in subsequent years.

If you are interested in applying please contact the SRI Research Advisor on 03 9589 2108 or email research@yogalinks.net You can also contact the SRI Secretary on (02) 43771871 for more information and an application form or by email sri@swanresearch.net
